Welcome Home!

Wellness has a long tradition at the Falkensteiner Hotel Therapia. A section for hydrotherapy was established in 1899 and was built according to the most modern principles of physiotherapy at the time. This is where the hotel got its name.

The hotel now has a small wellness area encompassing some 350 sq m and including a Finnish sauna, herbal steam bath, Kneipp foot bath and whirlpool. There is also a relaxation room, a full-body solarium and an indoor pool. Massages and aromatherapy are offered in two treatment rooms, and you can enjoy massages and fango wraps in the private spa with a steam bath and shower. The small fitness room has various cardio machines and weights, and there is also a hair salon in the hotel.

Drift away from your daily concerns. Leave all of your earthly cares behind. Enter another world where your body and soul are brought into harmony. You've earned it.
