

Your event in the Golden City
 Meetings. Incentive trips. Conferences. Events.

It would take you weeks to discover all of Prague's many wonders. To understand this beautiful city would take years. But enjoying it? You can do that right away, on your business trip or conference.

The Falkensteiner Hotel Maria Prag offers the ideal combination of modern conference rooms equipped with everything you need and a hotel in which the chief aim is to be your home away from home. The city of a thousand spires - home to Kafka, Dvorak, and Smetana, with the Charles Bridge built over the Moldau river and the St. Vitus Cathedral towering over - is an ideal location for conferences, corporate meetings and events of all kinds. After all, no matter how demanding the work, participants always still have the energy to discover a bit of this Czech capital city. We can organize an exciting and fascinating tour for you that will bring you back to the hotel in time to enjoy the unforgettable regional cooking and Mediterranean cuisine available, with a cocktail at the bar while you meditate on your impressions of the city.

The best part? Having your conference at the Falkensteiner Hotel Maria Prag means that you can leave everything to us, from the idea for the event to the moment when the last participant goes home.

HOTEL DESCRIPTION

In the heart of Prague, not far from Wenceslas Square, the Hotel Maria Prag is a reflection of the exceptional position that Prague has always held. The hotel has a marvellously classic façade, with modern and innovative design and features. The city that Franz Kafka called home was already the secret capital for intellectuals in the time of the Danube Monarchy. Prague: a city that bridges the past and the present. Discover the pleasure in these contrasts.
